

366 Waller Ave Suite 119, Lexington, KY 40504
859-519-0122 E-MAIL: tmartin@martinschooltravel.com

Privacy Policy

The following is a privacy policy between Martin School Travel and all of the participants that travel with Martin School Travel. We want to ensure that you understand what information we collect throughout the payment process.

Martin School Travel will maintain implement practices to make sure the security and confidentiality of customer information is protected. We limit access to customer information only to the employees that need it to perform business functions. No credit information is transmitted through email. Martin School Travel has the security in place to protect your personal information.

1. What type of information does Martin School Travel collect?

We collect information from each participant online when the participant registers or pays. That information includes name, school, parent name, address, email and phone number.

2. What information do we share and with whom?

Martin School Travel does not sell or rent customer information to outside marketers.

We may share your information with those who are connected with the Martin School Travel partnership of businesses. This partnership simply means these businesses are other businesses that Martin School Travel has a relationship with and those businesses agree to our strict standards of providing quality service, analyzing your needs and protecting your customer information.

In certain circumstances we may share your customer information with trusted service providers and others that may need that information to provide service. These service providers will agree to safeguard your information in strict compliance with our policy. We may also provide information to law enforcement officials when applicable.

Participant agrees to indemnify Martin School Travel and to hold harmless if any information is lost or stolen.

MARTIN SCHOOL TRAVEL

